

Hong Kong Branch

Nautical Institute Presentation: 'Key Elements for a healthy Safety Culture'

Speaker: Capt. Himanshu Chopra AFNI

Date: Thursday 20th September 2018

Venue: Offices of the Stephenson Harwood, 33/F United Centre, 95 Queensway, Admiralty.

Timing: 1830 Registration

1900 Presentation followed by Q&A

Food and drink: After the presentation

With thanks to Stephenson Harwood for venue support

Details of the presentation: Himanshu will discuss some of the elements that are required for harnessing a healthy safety culture in a Company. He will also delve upon aspects of human behaviour, and strategies that a company may consider to improve better cohesion between ship and shore.

About the speaker: Himanshu Chopra joined sea in 1997 as a Deck Cadet. He has sailed primarily on gas tankers and attained the rank of Master in 2011. From 2013-2015, he has performed audits on various types of vessels managed by Anglo-Eastern Ship Management Ltd.

Himanshu is presently working as Asst. QHSE Manager with Anglo-Eastern. Anglo-Eastern presently manages over 600 ships.

Reserving seats: There is no charge for this presentation. Please secure your place by contacting Aalok Sharma on following e-mail secretary@nautinsthk.com with Cc : sharmaaa@angloeastern.com

Warm Regards

Capt. Aalok Sharma / AFNI

Honorary Secretary

Nautical Institute

Hong Kong branch